Eiffert Builders

Building Dreams. Creating Superior Value.

Introduction:

Edward Eiffert Sr. completed his very first construction project in 1978. Today, sharing their father's same passion for building, his sons Edward Jr. and Michael continue the family tradition that is Eiffert Builders. Through many years of dedication and hard work, Eiffert Builders has evolved into a well-respected design/build firm, creating custom, architecturally distinctive homes and structures for a wide variety of clients.

Our family owned and operated business offers experience in all facets of new construction, additions, and remodeling on both residential and commercial projects. We provide a practical approach to building a vision, producing exceptional and enduring value in the process.

Whether you are a homeowner, general contractor, or architect, Eiffert Builders presents a full range of construction and design expertise at competitive prices. We are your complete source for your custom construction needs, offering skilled assistance in the following areas: general contracting, project management, cost-estimating, building department expediting, design, excavation, concrete and masonry, stonework, carpentry, siding and roofing, insulation, finishing, plumbing, heating and air-conditioning, and electrical systems.

Our construction portfolio is as unique and extensive as our customer base. No construction challenge is too great or project too small. From traditional to contemporary architecture, wood framing or masonry construction, we provide a state-of-the-art product. And because we can offer a complete array of services under one company, you save money while the construction process becomes a more efficient, positive, and rewarding experience for all involved.

At Eiffert Builders, our company culture of unparalleled quality and service is deeply entrenched in each member of our team. By combining the ideals and dreams of our clients, the projects we complete reflect an unwavering dedication to quality construction standards that produce astounding outcomes and superior value.

Foundation:

Lead-In: Skilled professionals turn ideas into reality.

At the heart of each construction project is the foundation. Whether it is stone, concrete, steel, or wood; a basement, crawl space, pilings, or slab-on-grade, the foundation needs to be exceptionally strong, square, and dry.

Whatever the project requirements, Eiffert Builders can meet the challenge. From the excavation, to the framing process, to the utilization of concrete, our talented masons and expert contractors work to ensure the project meets and exceeds expectations.

Eiffert Builders delivers precision and stability in every foundation we erect. Our commitment to the highest of industry standards ensures that the foundation will be skillfully constructed to withstand the forces of nature over time.

Testimonial: “Eiffert Builders is building one of my dreams. I can’t tell you how happy I am to have builders who take as much pride in their work as I do. Our site is kept clean and organized, and each day I am astounded by the progress. In addition to their project organization and craftsmanship, the people at Eiffert Builders are a pleasure to deal with and give me peace of mind that my building project is also their building project.”

--P West, Homeowner

Stonework:

Lead-In: Crafted by master artisans, our stonework offers beauty that endures.

We specialize in fine stonework for walls, patios, chimneys, fireplaces, stone veneers, fountains, monuments, walkways and more. Eiffert Builders can accommodate any style and budget. Working with a variety of materials, we guarantee precision quality and lasting beauty.

Testimonial: Eiffert Builders represents the finest in a full-service building entity. As a design professional, I have never felt so confident during the construction process as I have with Eiffert Builders. From site mobilization to project closeout, when dealing with Eiffert Builders I am dealing with construction professionals and fine craftsman that share my vision. In short, any design project of any complexity, I’m calling Eiffert Builders. --D. Pulver, Design Professional

Carpentry:

Lead-In: Expert carpentry that supports the demands of everyday living.

Superior craftsmanship is what makes our work so distinctive and sets Eiffert Builders above the rest. From custom trim to built-in cabinetry, hardwood flooring and more, you can feel confident knowing that our skilled carpenters will attend to every detail.

Our exquisite carpentry showcased in these photographs exemplifies our commitment to enduring value. We work within budget to bring a quality product that will compliment the individual lifestyle.

Through our established quality control system, each project is expertly completed on time and to exact specifications. Our talented team of professionals crafts a finished product that is both breathtaking and functional.

Call Out: I hired Eiffert Builders to help build my own home. They offered very competitive prices as well as excellent service. They were prompt and always left the construction site clean and in order. I will definitely hire Eiffert Builders again. They are the best! –MC, General Contractor and Homeowner

Siding and Roofing:

Lead-In: We build strength and dimensional stability into every project we undertake.

At Eiffert Builders, we work with leading national manufacturers of siding and roofing products including Atlas, Owens Corning, GAF Timberline, and James Hardie. The strength and durability of our slate, cedar, and architectural standing-seam metal roofing as well as our superior siding materials ensure lasting benefits, producing a final tangible outcome that endures.

Testimonial: “We presented Eiffert Builders with a difficult challenge. They listened and they delivered...exceeding our expectations beyond belief. They build with integrity and outstanding professionalism. It’s very refreshing to work with a company that exhibits such respectable qualities.” –JP Marchetti, Consulting Engineer

Open Double Spread (Middle of Brochure):

Your complete source for all of your building needs.

Insulation:

Lead-In: State-of-the-art materials ensure lasting value.

The right insulation is crucial to the economic and environmental well being of any construction project. This is why Eiffert Builders uses only quality insulation materials from Icynene®, one of the leading manufacturers of insulation to date. Icynene® insulation promotes a healthier indoor environment, minimizes airborne sounds, and increases energy efficiency, providing the most technically advanced thermal protection in the industry.

Testimonial: Prompt, quality service and a great healthy solution to today’s heating costs. If you’re considering insulating with Icynene®, don’t hesitate to call Eiffert Builders. I am thrilled with the product and will call them for all my projects; I will also recommend them to any interested clients. –C. Maas, Van Maassen Interiors

Finishing:

Lead-In: Imaginative, viable solutions that represent individuality and true artistry.

The finishing stage encompasses the creative, tangible aspects of the project. Eiffert Builders presents a comprehensive menu of economical, practical and aesthetic solutions to complete each construction project. Interior and exterior materials are carefully selected to work harmoniously together. From drywall to painting and wallpaper, our attention to minute details and our adherence to the highest of industry standards result in both beauty and lasting value.

At Eiffert Builders, we use only the finest materials from leading manufacturers to produce a visually pleasing, well-crafted result. We pride ourselves in creating a finished product that surpasses expectations and offers lasting comfort and enjoyment. Merging requirements and desires into one solid, exceptional outcome, we work to make the finishing process exciting and worry-free.

Testimonial: I initially came to Eiffert Builders for Icynene® insulation. But because they offered so many construction services under one roof and my project was so complex, I hired them to complete every aspect of the job. This made for easy scheduling and it saved me time and money. Throughout the entire project, Eiffert Builders exhibited outstanding professionalism and know-how. They were prompt, honest, and knowledgeable. My project was completed on time with absolutely no delays. Eiffert Builders is “one-stop-shopping” at its best. They made my job so much easier. -PC, Construction Manager
